

EITASM is an enterprise database designed to manage organizational departments, employees, IT hardware assets, software licenses, security incidents, audit logs, and security compliance. The system enforces access-control policies, tracks asset assignments, records incidents, and automates onboarding and security workflows.